FORM CRS

Shore Point Advisors is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser and, as such, we provide advisory services rather than brokerage services. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you, our client, to understand the differences. Additionally, free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing. This document is a summary of the services and fees we offer to "retail" investors, which are natural persons who seek or receive services primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer the following investment advisory services to retail investors: Financial Planning and Consulting Services; Portfolio Management Services; and Pension Consulting Services.

Account Monitoring: If you open an investment account with our firm, as part of our standard service we will monitor your investments on an ongoing basis with account reviews on an annual basis.

Investment Authority: We manage investment accounts on a discretionary basis whereby we will decide which investments to buy or sell for your account. You may limit our discretionary authority (for example, limiting the types of securities that can be purchased or sold for your account) by providing our firm with your restrictions and guidelines in writing.

Investment Offerings: We provide advice on various types of investments, but we primarily offer advice on mutual funds and exchange traded funds. Our services are not limited to a specific type of investment or product.

Account Minimums and Requirements: In general, we require minimum assets of $500,000 to participate in our portfolio management services, which may be waived at our discretion. Our ongoing financial planning and consulting services require that you open an account with AdvicePay.

Detailed information regarding our services, fees and other disclosures can be found in our Form ADV Part 2A Items 4, 7, 8 and 13 by clicking this link: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/296848>.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or Why Not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications?
- What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

The following summarizes the principal fees and costs associated with engaging our firm for investment advisory services.

- Asset Based Fees - Payable quarterly in advance. Since the fees we receive are asset-based (i.e. based on the value of your account), we have an incentive to increase your account value which creates a conflict especially for those accounts holding illiquid or hard-to-value assets;
- Hourly Fees - A retainer fee is required as the inception of the advisory services and fees are payable a agreed to in the advisory agreement;
- Fixed Fees - A retainer fee is required as the inception of the advisory services and fees are payable a agreed to in the advisory agreement.
- Examples of the most common fees and costs applicable to our clients are:
 - Fees related to mutual funds and exchange-traded funds;
 - Custodian fees and account maintenance fees;
 - Transaction charges when purchasing or selling securities; and
 - Other product-level fees associated with your investments.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For detailed information, refer to our Form ADV Part 2A, Items 5 and 6, by clicking this link: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/296848>.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

- Third-Party Payments: We are affiliated through common control and ownership with JCL Financial, LLC ("JCL"), an insurance company and/or agency. Persons providing investment advice on behalf of our firm are licensed as insurance agents of JCL. These persons will earn commission-based compensation for selling insurance products. Insurance commissions are separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because they have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs.
- Because our revenue is derived from asset-based fees, we have an incentive to grow your account as much as possible. This could cause us to take overly aggressive positions in conflict with your interests in an attempt to grow your account.

Key Questions to Ask Your Financial Professional

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Refer to our Form ADV Part 2A, Items 5, 10, 12 and 14, by clicking this link, <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/296848>, to help you understand what conflicts exist.

How do your financial professionals make money?

The financial professionals servicing your account(s) are compensated by a percentage of the revenue from investment advisory services and commissions from insurance products. Financial professionals' compensation is based on factors such as the amount of client assets they service, the time and complexity required to meet a client's needs, the products sold (i.e. differential compensation) and the revenue the firm earns from the person's services or recommendations.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No, our firm and our financial professionals currently do not have any legal or disciplinary history to disclose.
